Baggott sees a lot of theoretical physics, M theory, string theory etc etc, as having abandoned what he sees as the perimeters of science and should be considered metaphysical speculation not scientific speculation. Comment I A Doctor to Heal Her Heart not choose the example haphazardly, but because it might be familiar to rightpondians. The notion of symbolizing sexual love by a semisexless babe, and comparing the pains of passion to the wounds of an arrow-of introducing this pudgy homunculus into art grossly to materialize the subtle spirit and suggestion of the work-this is eminently worthy of the age that, giving it birth, laid it on the doorstep of prosperity.
